Purpose This policy is intended to clearly outline QEC's commitment to ensuring employees are well supported and there are fair and productive workplace relation procedures.

Target Audience This policy applies to all QEC employees including permanent employees, casuals, contractors, volunteers, students, and honorary appointees.

Definitions

Policy QEC acknowledges the importance of developing and maintaining a safe environment for all employees that is fair, productive and positive. This policy sets out how this will be achieved.

QEC will:

- Adhere to all relevant legislation, industrial instruments and common law in all facets of employee support and workplace relations.
- Provide the necessary training, development, tools and support to ensure compliance with this policy.
- Ensure that all procedures under this policy are fully documented communicated and complied with by all employees
- Adhere to National Employment Standards and industrial instruments in regards to minimum salary and conditions of employment and leave entitlements.
- Support flexible work practices to promote a positive, healthy balance for all employees.
- Ensure that all employees are in a fit condition to perform their work without compromising their own safety, the safety of fellow employees, the safety of those in their care or members of the public.
- Maintain a commitment to ensuring that staff interact with each other in a mutually respectful way at all times free of harassment and discrimination.
- Provide a consultative, transparent procedure to manage and resolve identified workplace relations issues
- Ensure that management and employees work cooperatively with each other and external parties to achieve effective workplace relations.
- Provide a grievance procedure for all employees that is managed effectively, fairly and in a timely way.
- Provide support services such as: Employee Assistance Program (EAP) and a Critical Incident Stress Management (CISM) program for employees.
